

PSALM 141
(v. 1-4, 9.)

setting by Peter Tranchesi

Andantino

1. Lord — I call up on thee. Haste — thee unto me, — and con- sider — my voice
2. Let — my pray'r be set forth in thy sight — as the incense, and let the lifting up —

Antiphon

1. When I cry — un — to thee. O let not my heart be inclined to any e — — vil thing.
2. of my hands — be an eve — ning sacrifice —

3. Set a watch O Lord before my mouth and keep — the door of my lips. 9. But — mine eyes look

9. unto thee: O — Lord God in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soul. O let not my heart be inclined to any e — — vil thing. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son — and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now, — and ev — er shall be: World without end. A — — — men.
